

6516208407.txt

It is inappropriate to stifle competition. The local broadcasters should up their services to compete with any radio station whether it is local radio or satellite radio. The local traffic and weather provided on the xm radio has been helped me through many traffic jams - much more than local radio. Let local radio compete by increasing their services!